FROM THE COACH

Hey Steelers fans let me welcome you all here for tonight's home final V Altona.

The girls and I are excited about playing such a huge game in front of our fans and young Steelers players tonight so while we are trying to get the win we want to hear as much noise as you guys can make.

I would also like to thank our major sponsor Balnarring Storm for their support in season 2024 we greatly appreciated you for getting behind us, and can I just say I hope the storm shelter is rocking and full of our awesome storm supporters.

To Jason at Ford Mornington , Frankston and Hastings thank for your support and looking after Jenna this year with her great car and your contribution to our whole club for this year.

To the players sponsors and all sponsors who have got behind us this season thank you all so much and your support does not go unnoticed.

A big thank you to our score table and stats people who I hope I haven't yelled at too much this year thank you all for your year.

To everyone who has helped out during the year from Sophie and Jay with our merchandise table who give up their time to make our game nights so much fun to Mark Wansbrough , Lee Adams (000) and all the volunteers who have helped during season 2024 a heart felt thank you to you all.

So Let's Go Steelers!!
